

TALKS OF HIS CHURCH CREED

Rev. Frank Fay Eddy Tells of Fundamental Truths of Religion.

PURPOSE OF UNITARIANISM

BELIEVES ORGANIZATION HAS GREAT POSSIBILITIES.

At the services of the First Unitarian society yesterday in Unity hall, Rev. Frank Fay Eddy preached a sermon on "A Little Study of Ourselves by Ourselves," meaning by "ourselves," he explained, Unitarians.

A solo was sung by Miss Nellie Mahan, and a quartette rendered the usual anthem.

In the body of the sermon Mr. Eddy said that the fundamental distinction between Unitarians and orthodox Christians is indicated in the manner in which the Holy Spirit of theology was exchanged in Unitarian thought for the much broader phrase, the Spirit of Truth. Three questions were asked and answered.

First, he asked: "Who are we?"

In answer he said that Unitarianism was a part of a much broader movement somewhat vaguely called liberalism, which had many sides but three principal phases, namely, scientific, sociological and religious.

"Unitarianism only represents a part of the religious phase. But it does give opportunity for expression of all that is significant in religious liberalism for all who seek its fold. It makes no claims to exclusiveness or of having a religious monopoly of saving grace. The spirit of truth is unconfined and the influence of righteousness work in ten thousand ways."

Meaning of Unitarianism.

"What does Unitarianism mean?" was the second question. Mr. Eddy said that it means fundamentally a following of the spirit of truth, but that it meant more than science.

"Science stops with the explanation of the universe and man in the universe all as phenomena something to be catalogued and studied as cause and effect. But religion cannot stop there. There is soul or personality which science cannot explain and of which we are content with a scientific explanation if it were possible. The Unitarian realizes that in the old problem of finding out the right relation of himself to a personality with thoughts and a will to God and man. The problem is the same as of old if the person does seem new to his understanding."

Reason for This "Is."

With our views, it would seem that an "ism" is almost unnecessary, said Mr. Eddy.

"Unitarianism has no creed, is congregational in polity and within local churches, individualistic to the highest degree. Our 'ism' grew naturally out of the habit of language, which is founded on the mental faculty of names. But there is the spiritual reason that men and women of common ideas and ideals derive value and satisfaction in unity and association. Further than that, there is the practical value of a social machine for accomplishing definite objects."

In conclusion Mr. Eddy said a small church may be a great church, and he believed the Unitarian church to be a great church, although not one which made no mistakes. But he was sure of one thing, which was that this church stood in a peculiarly advantageous position for marking the religious affirmations of the future.

GERMANY HAS NO INTEREST.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—Germany has only a slight political interest in Cuba, and the intervention of the United States is regarded at the foreign office here as reasonable in consequence of its relations with the island.

"The subject of European powers in Cuba," said an official of the foreign office, "look to the United States to protect their interests."

STORY WAS A FAKE.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Captain Elliott, commandant of the marine corps, said tonight that he had not received any information from Cuba indicating that any marines had been killed by insurgents on the island, as asserted in a published report.

Coffee vs. Brains

A London physician commenting on the increase of "coffee drunkards" in Great Britain says:

"Coffee is a cerebral (brain) stimulant, ranking with alcohol." He condemns the after-dinner black coffee (vaunted by the coffee defenders as "harmless"), saying it is responsible for many cases of insomnia.
